FS Clerkenwell

About Clerkenwell

FS Clerkenwell emerged from the explorations of creating a modern Slab Serif by designers Phil Garnham and Jason Smith. The aim was to take inspiration from the architecture and designers in and around Clerkenwell in London. The area has a Victorian feel about it with loads of intricate brick buildings that have been converted into Modern bars, restaurants, and offices. Sort of traditional with a contemporary twist.

FS Clerkenwell is ideal for headline graphics, but also an easy to read text face.

This four font family consists of:

- » Light
- » Regular
- » Italic
- » Bold
